

SPENDING TIME WITH YOUR FRIENDS

Seeing your friends at home

- You cannot meet with people you don't live with inside your house.
- If you stay 2 metres away, you can meet with up to 6 people in your garden.

Seeing your friends indoors in public places

- You cannot meet indoors with people you don't live with.
- You can go to indoor public places with people you live with e.g. restaurants, cinemas.
- 15 people can attend a wedding. Households should socially distance and not mix.
- 30 people can attend a funeral and 15 people can go to commemorative linked events. Households should socially distance and not mix.

Getting together outdoors

If you stay 2 metres from each person you can:

- go outside with people you live with.
- go outside for exercise (e.g. walk, bike, jog). Outdoor exercise classes and activities will be open.
- meet up to 6 people who you don't live with in an outdoor public place.

Some people can form a support bubble

- Households with only one adult (single person or single parent or carer families) can form a support bubble with another household. In that bubble, you can act as if you all live together.
- Once you make a support bubble, you should not change who is in that bubble.
